

Name: _____

Famous Forger Virtual Speed Dating

Forgeries of money, art, and historical documents have occurred throughout history. Some of these forgeries have fooled that best banks, historians, and art dealers. You will be researching one of these famous forgers.

Your assignment:

1. Monday- Sign-up for a forger on the virtual sign-up sheet on the blog. This is the person you will be doing all of your research on.
2. Monday- Fill-in the Forger Information Table or on your own sheet of paper with answers to all the questions listed.
3. Tuesday- Make a five minute or less video as your "dating video profile". This video must include the answers to all the questions in the table.
  - a. The format and style of this video is largely up to you. It should not just be you reading off a sheet of paper. You could have someone off screen asking you the questions and you answering them. You could also take the questions and create a narrative that you tell the camera.
4. Tuesday- Upload your video to YouTube
5. Tuesday- Copy the YouTube link and submit your video using the link on my website.
6. Wednesday- Watch the videos of eight classmates and fill-in the Speed Dating Information Table

Forger Information Table

Question	Answer
What's your name?
Where are you from?
What kind of education do you have?
Are you married or in a relationship? Do you have children? How many? How old?
Did you have a job other than forgery? If so, what was it?
When did your forgeries take place?
What type of forgery are you known for?
Tell me the specifics of your forgery.
How long were your forgeries believed before you were discovered?
What caused people to become suspicious? When were you caught? What caused you to be caught?
Were you arrested? Did you go to jail? For how long?
What are you up to today?

Speed Dating Information: Watch the videos of eight of your classmates and fill in the table below

Name	Personal Information	Forgery Information